

Creating Places for People

Residents and businesses in Somerset are being urged to help shape the future of their county and have their say on how best to create places that put people at the heart of their design.

Respond to the consultation and view the draft principles by scanning the QR code below.

<https://somersetcouncil.citizenspace.com/planning/creating-places-for-people>

Thank you for taking the time to respond.

